

Wilkomme bisàmm*

When the setting sun illuminates the houses of the Quai de la Poissonnerie and a family of swans accompanies you back to the pier, then the Little Venice of Colmar has offered you some of its enchantment.

When the gentle green of the cloister of the Unterlinden Museum leads you to its chapel to confront the abundance and modernity of the Issenheim Altarpiece, more than 500 years of Rhenish history are revealed to you.

When, at dusk, the Alsatian song of the night watchman surprises you and resounds in the alleys of Turckheim, then this proud wine village has shared with you a part of its centuries-old history.

When, after cycling through the vineyards of our Grands Crus, you are charmed by a pleasant courtyard full of flowers and a winegrower introduces you to his liquid gold, then the soul of the Alsace Wine Route has revealed itself to you.

Romantic, gourmet, cultural, whether on foot or by bike, it is between town, countryside and vineyards that you can appreciate the beating heart of a region attached to its roots, its history and which invites you to the 'Stàmmtisch' for some time to share together.

Welcome to Colmar and its region!

Colmar, an exceptional architectural heritage

The vast pedestrian zone of old Colmar, classified as a "safeguarded sector", displays a rich heritage, both civil and religious, perfectly preserved, from the Middle Ages to the 18th century, making it a real open-air museum.

- 1 • The "Little Venice" district with its fascinating colourful facades.
- 2 • The Tanneurs district and its large houses with white facades.
- 3 • The majestic Saint Martin Collegiate Church, whose yellow Rouffach sandstone reflects the sun's rays in a shimmering fashion.

- 4 • The Pfister House, Renaissance period, with a beautiful corner oriel and rich wall paintings.
- 5 • The majestic House of Heads with its 106 face sculptures.
- 6 • The Koïfhus, an emblematic place in the history of wine, whose roof offers a bewitching visual spectacle.

Niedermorschwihr

The Trois-Épis and its Galtz

The real Alsatian Corcovado

At Trois-Épis, in 1491, the Virgin Mary appeared to a blacksmith on his way to Niedermorschwihr. For more than 500 years, diocesan priests and religious communities have perpetuated the most famous Marian cult in Alsace. The Galtz is a rocky spur near the Trois-Épis on which a monumental statue of Christ blessing the Alsace plain was erected in 1930 in recognition of the return of Alsace to France. The hike is accessible and the view incredible!
